MISS EL OROSO

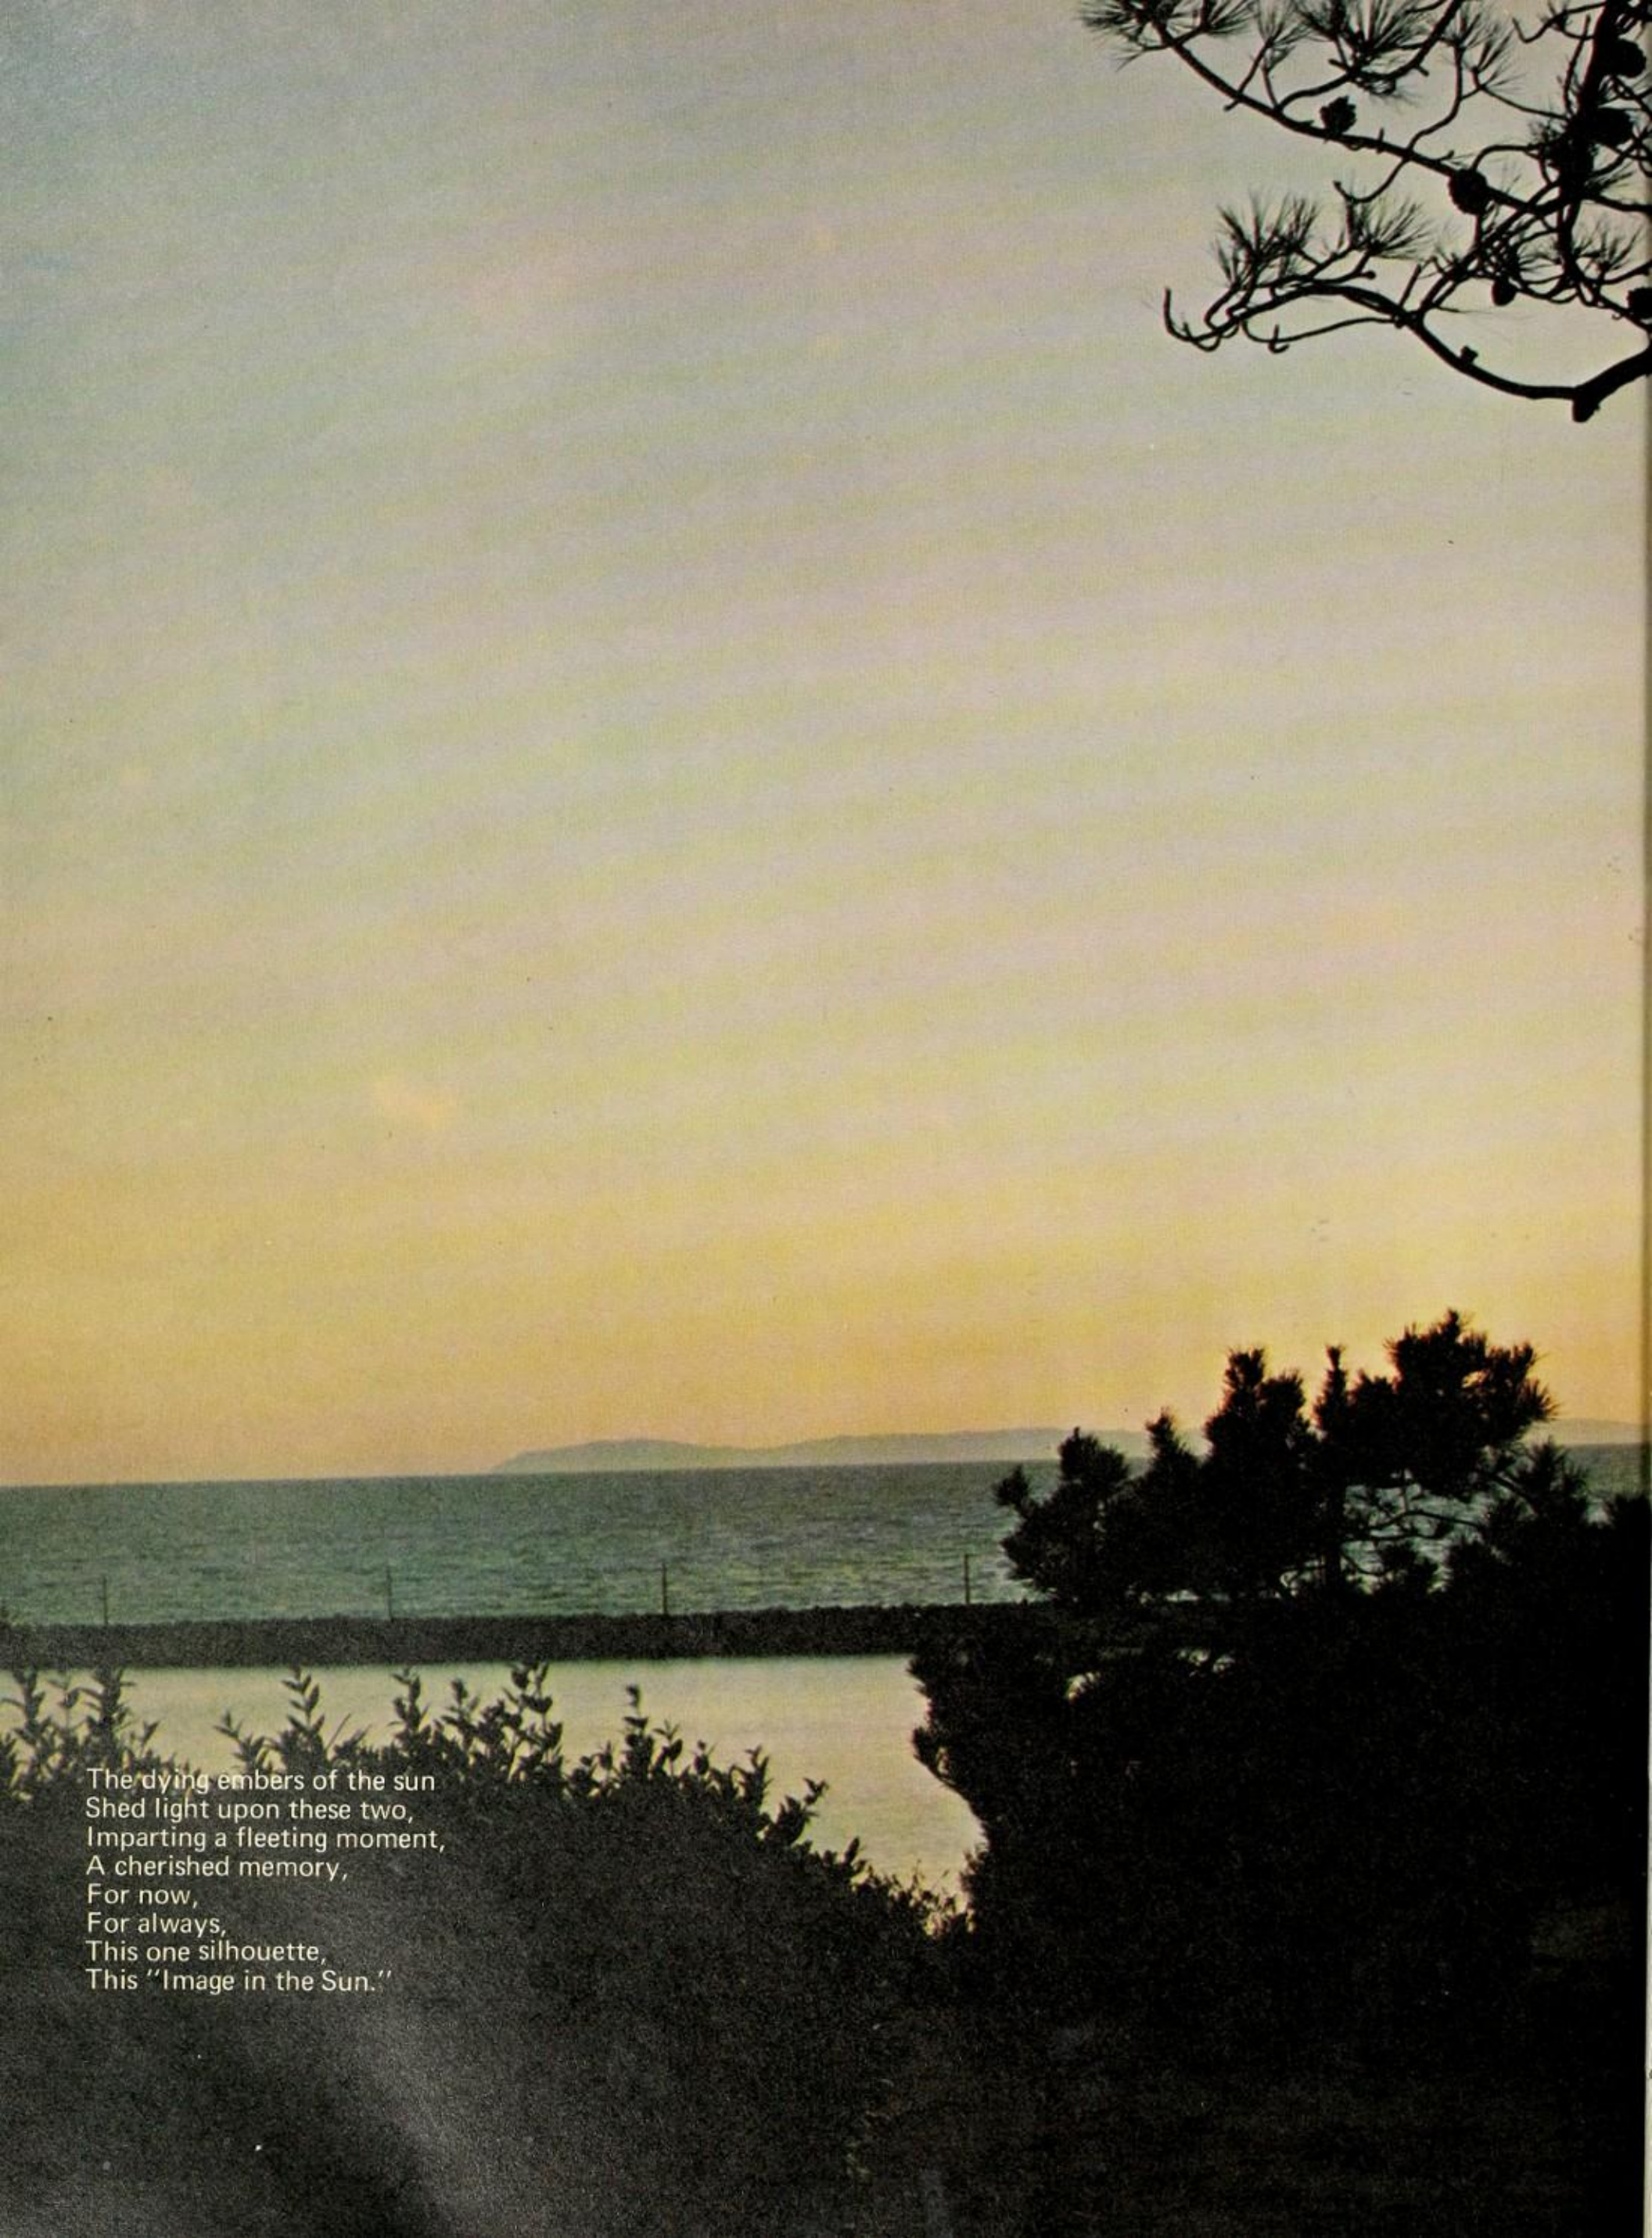
JUDGE

ARTIE JOHNSON

The 1969 El Oroso staff wishes to thank Arte Johnson, who was unanimously selected as the judge for the Miss El Oroso contest. Mr. Johnson is well known to Warren High students for his many faces on the "Laugh-In."

On the basis of senior pictures Mr. Johnson chose Cindy McClung to be Miss El Oroso 1969. Congratulations Cindy, and thank you Mr. Johnson for taking time out of your busy schedule.



The dying embers of the sun
Shed light upon these two,
Imparting a fleeting moment,
A cherished memory,
For now,
For always,
This one silhouette,
This "Image in the Sun."

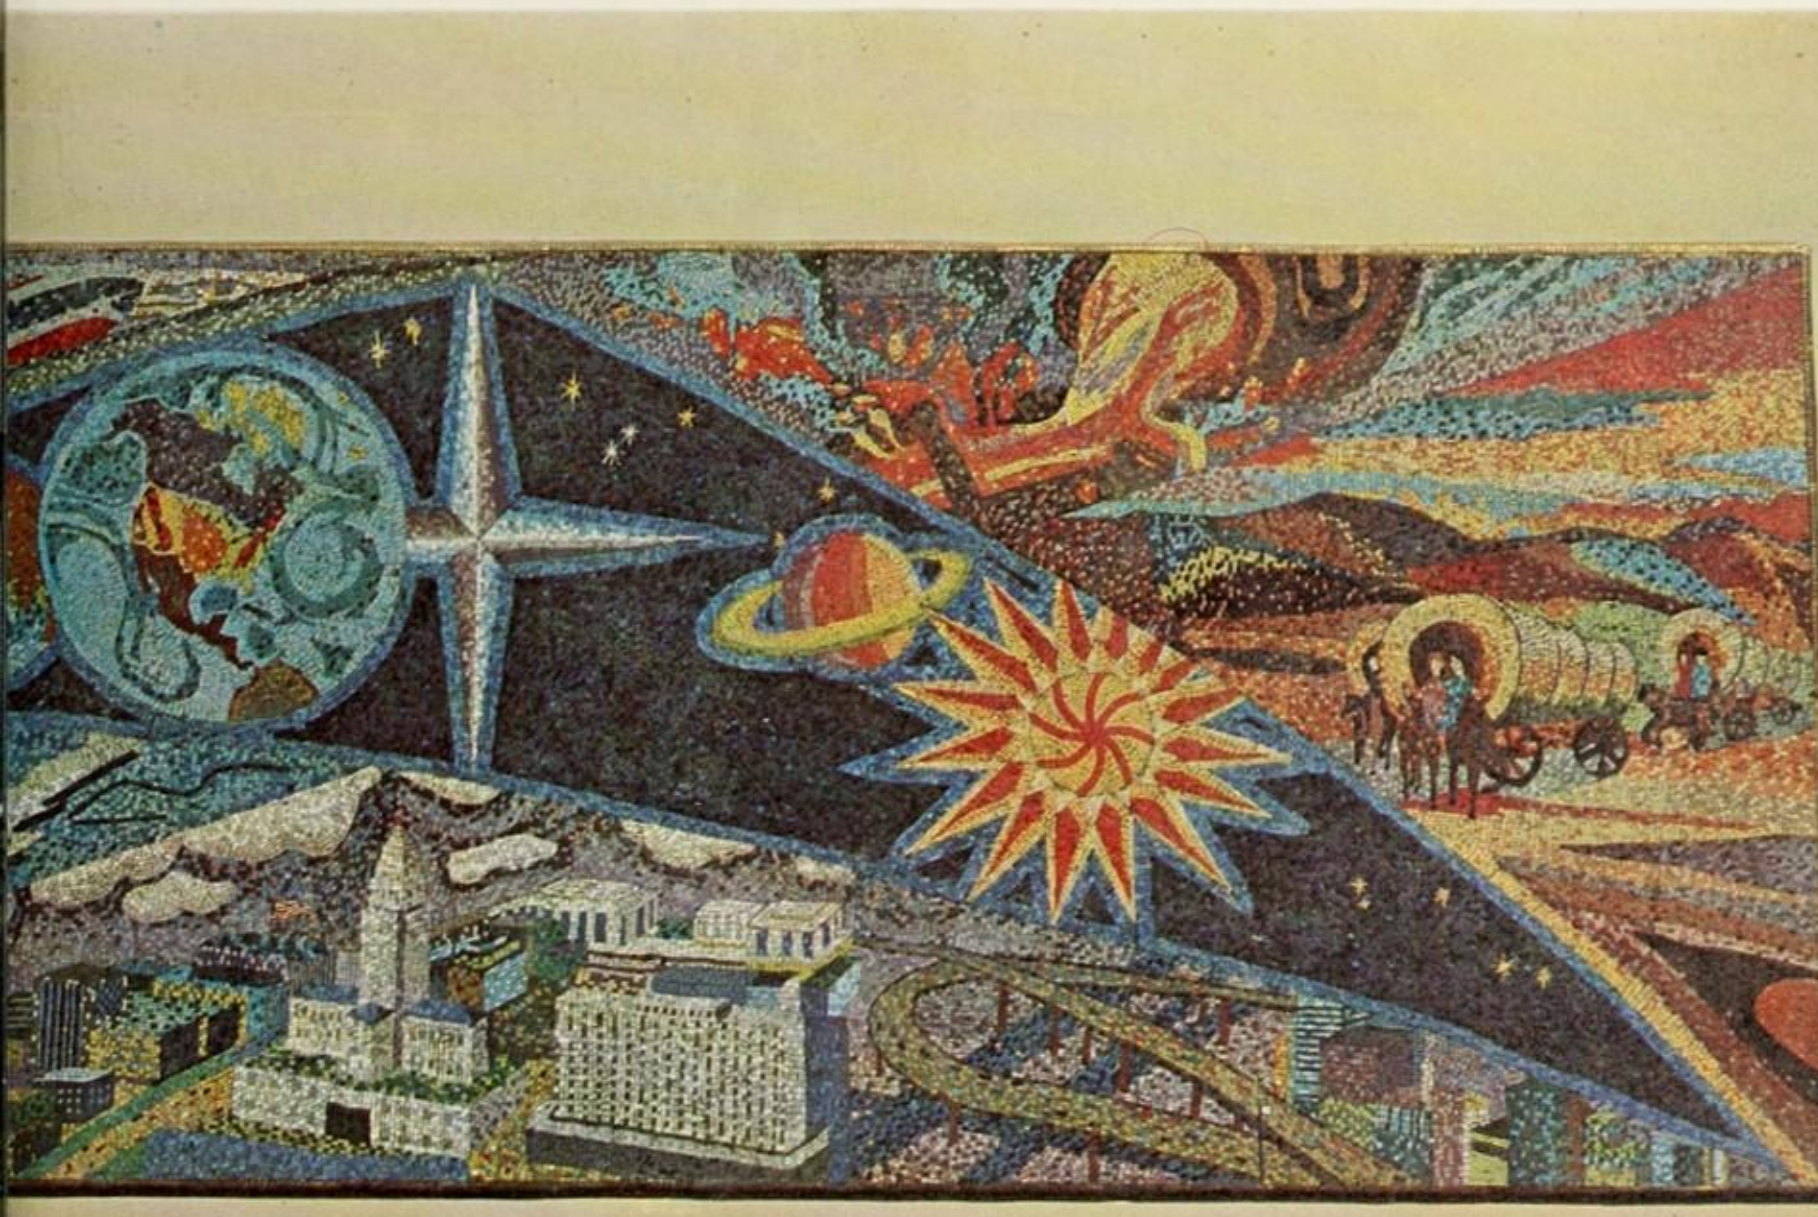
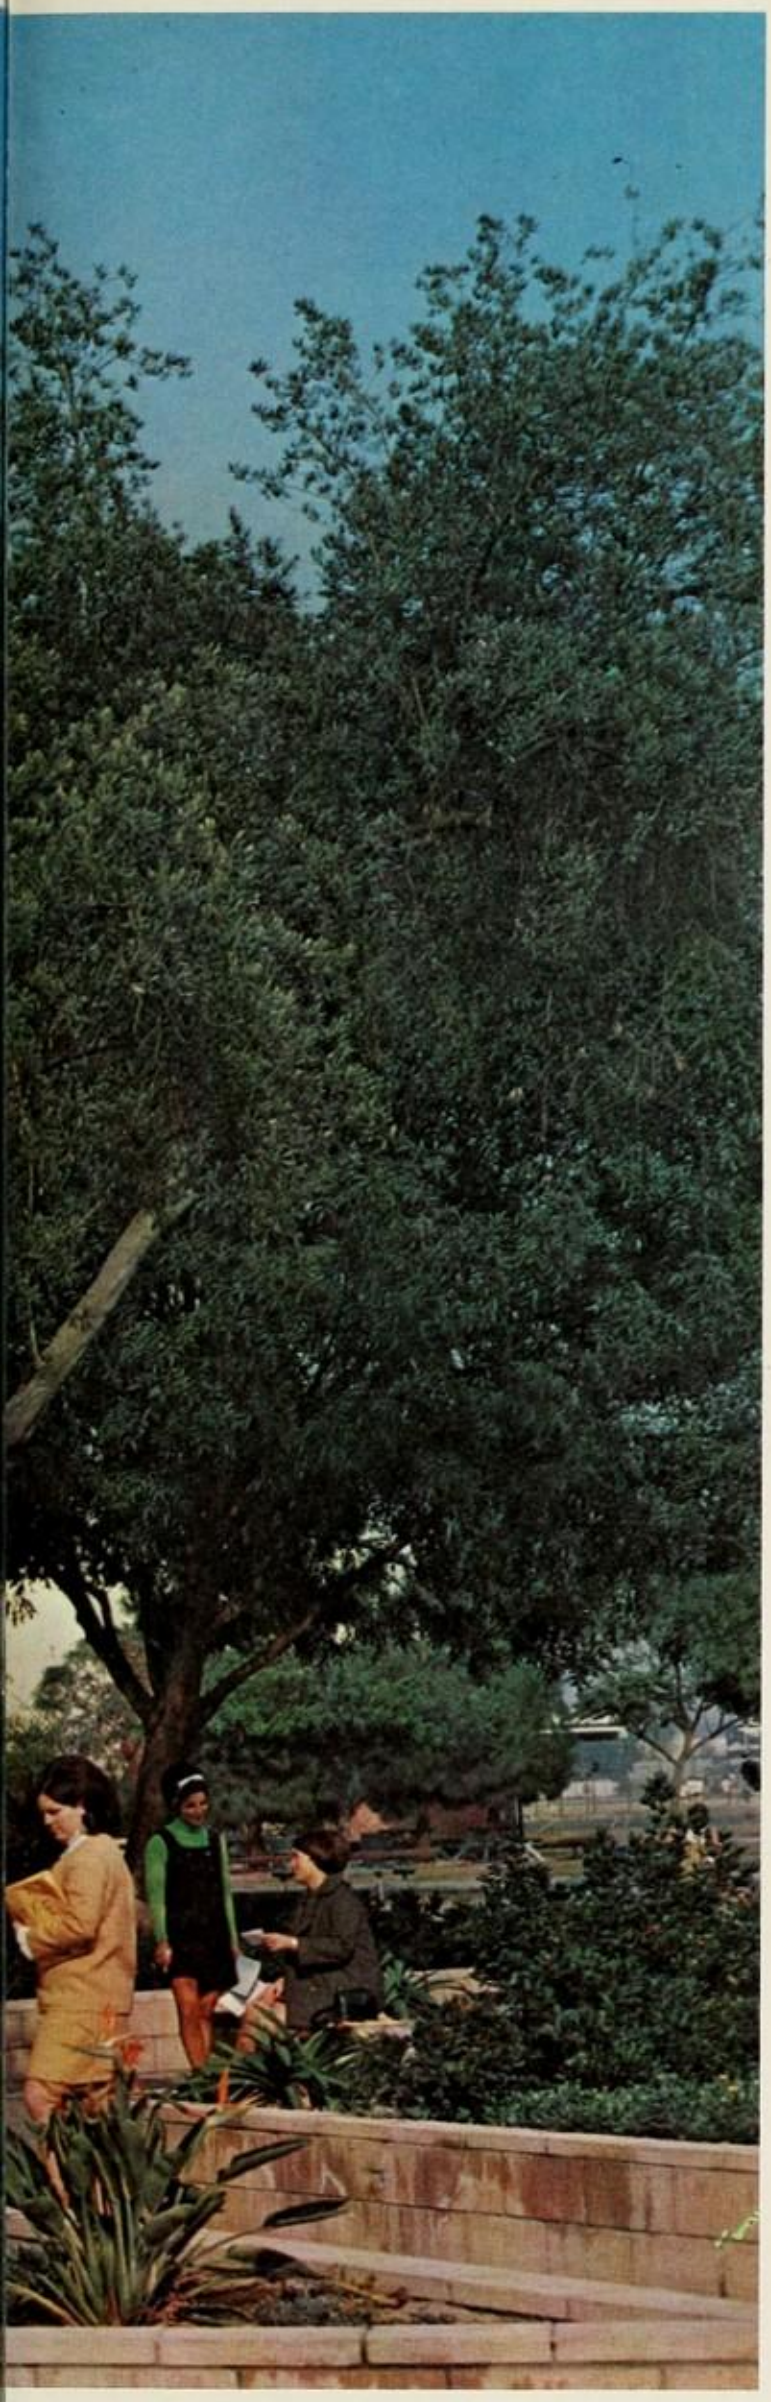
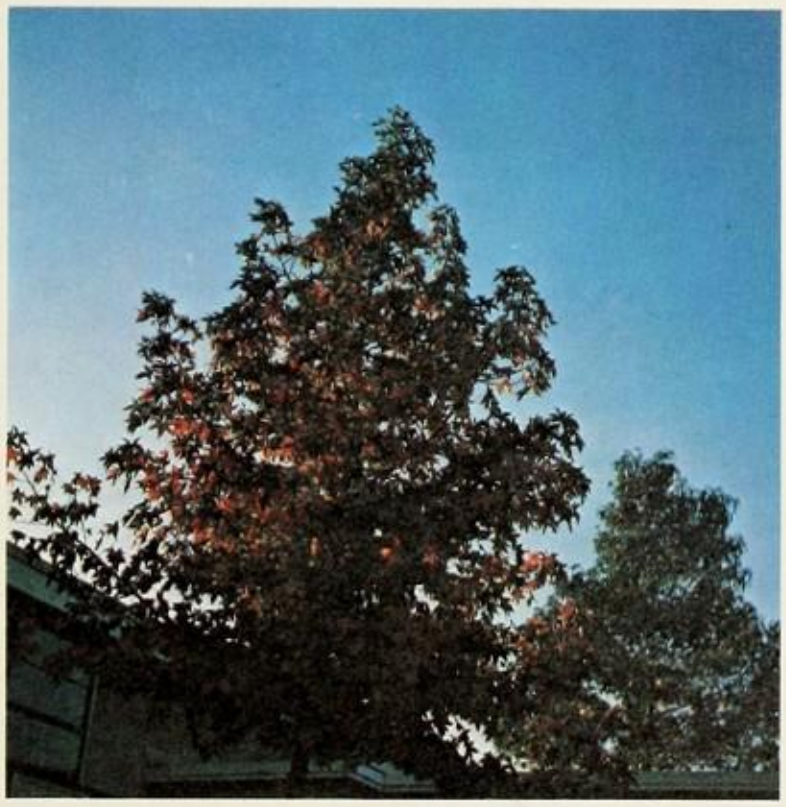
U.S.
PROGRESS THRO

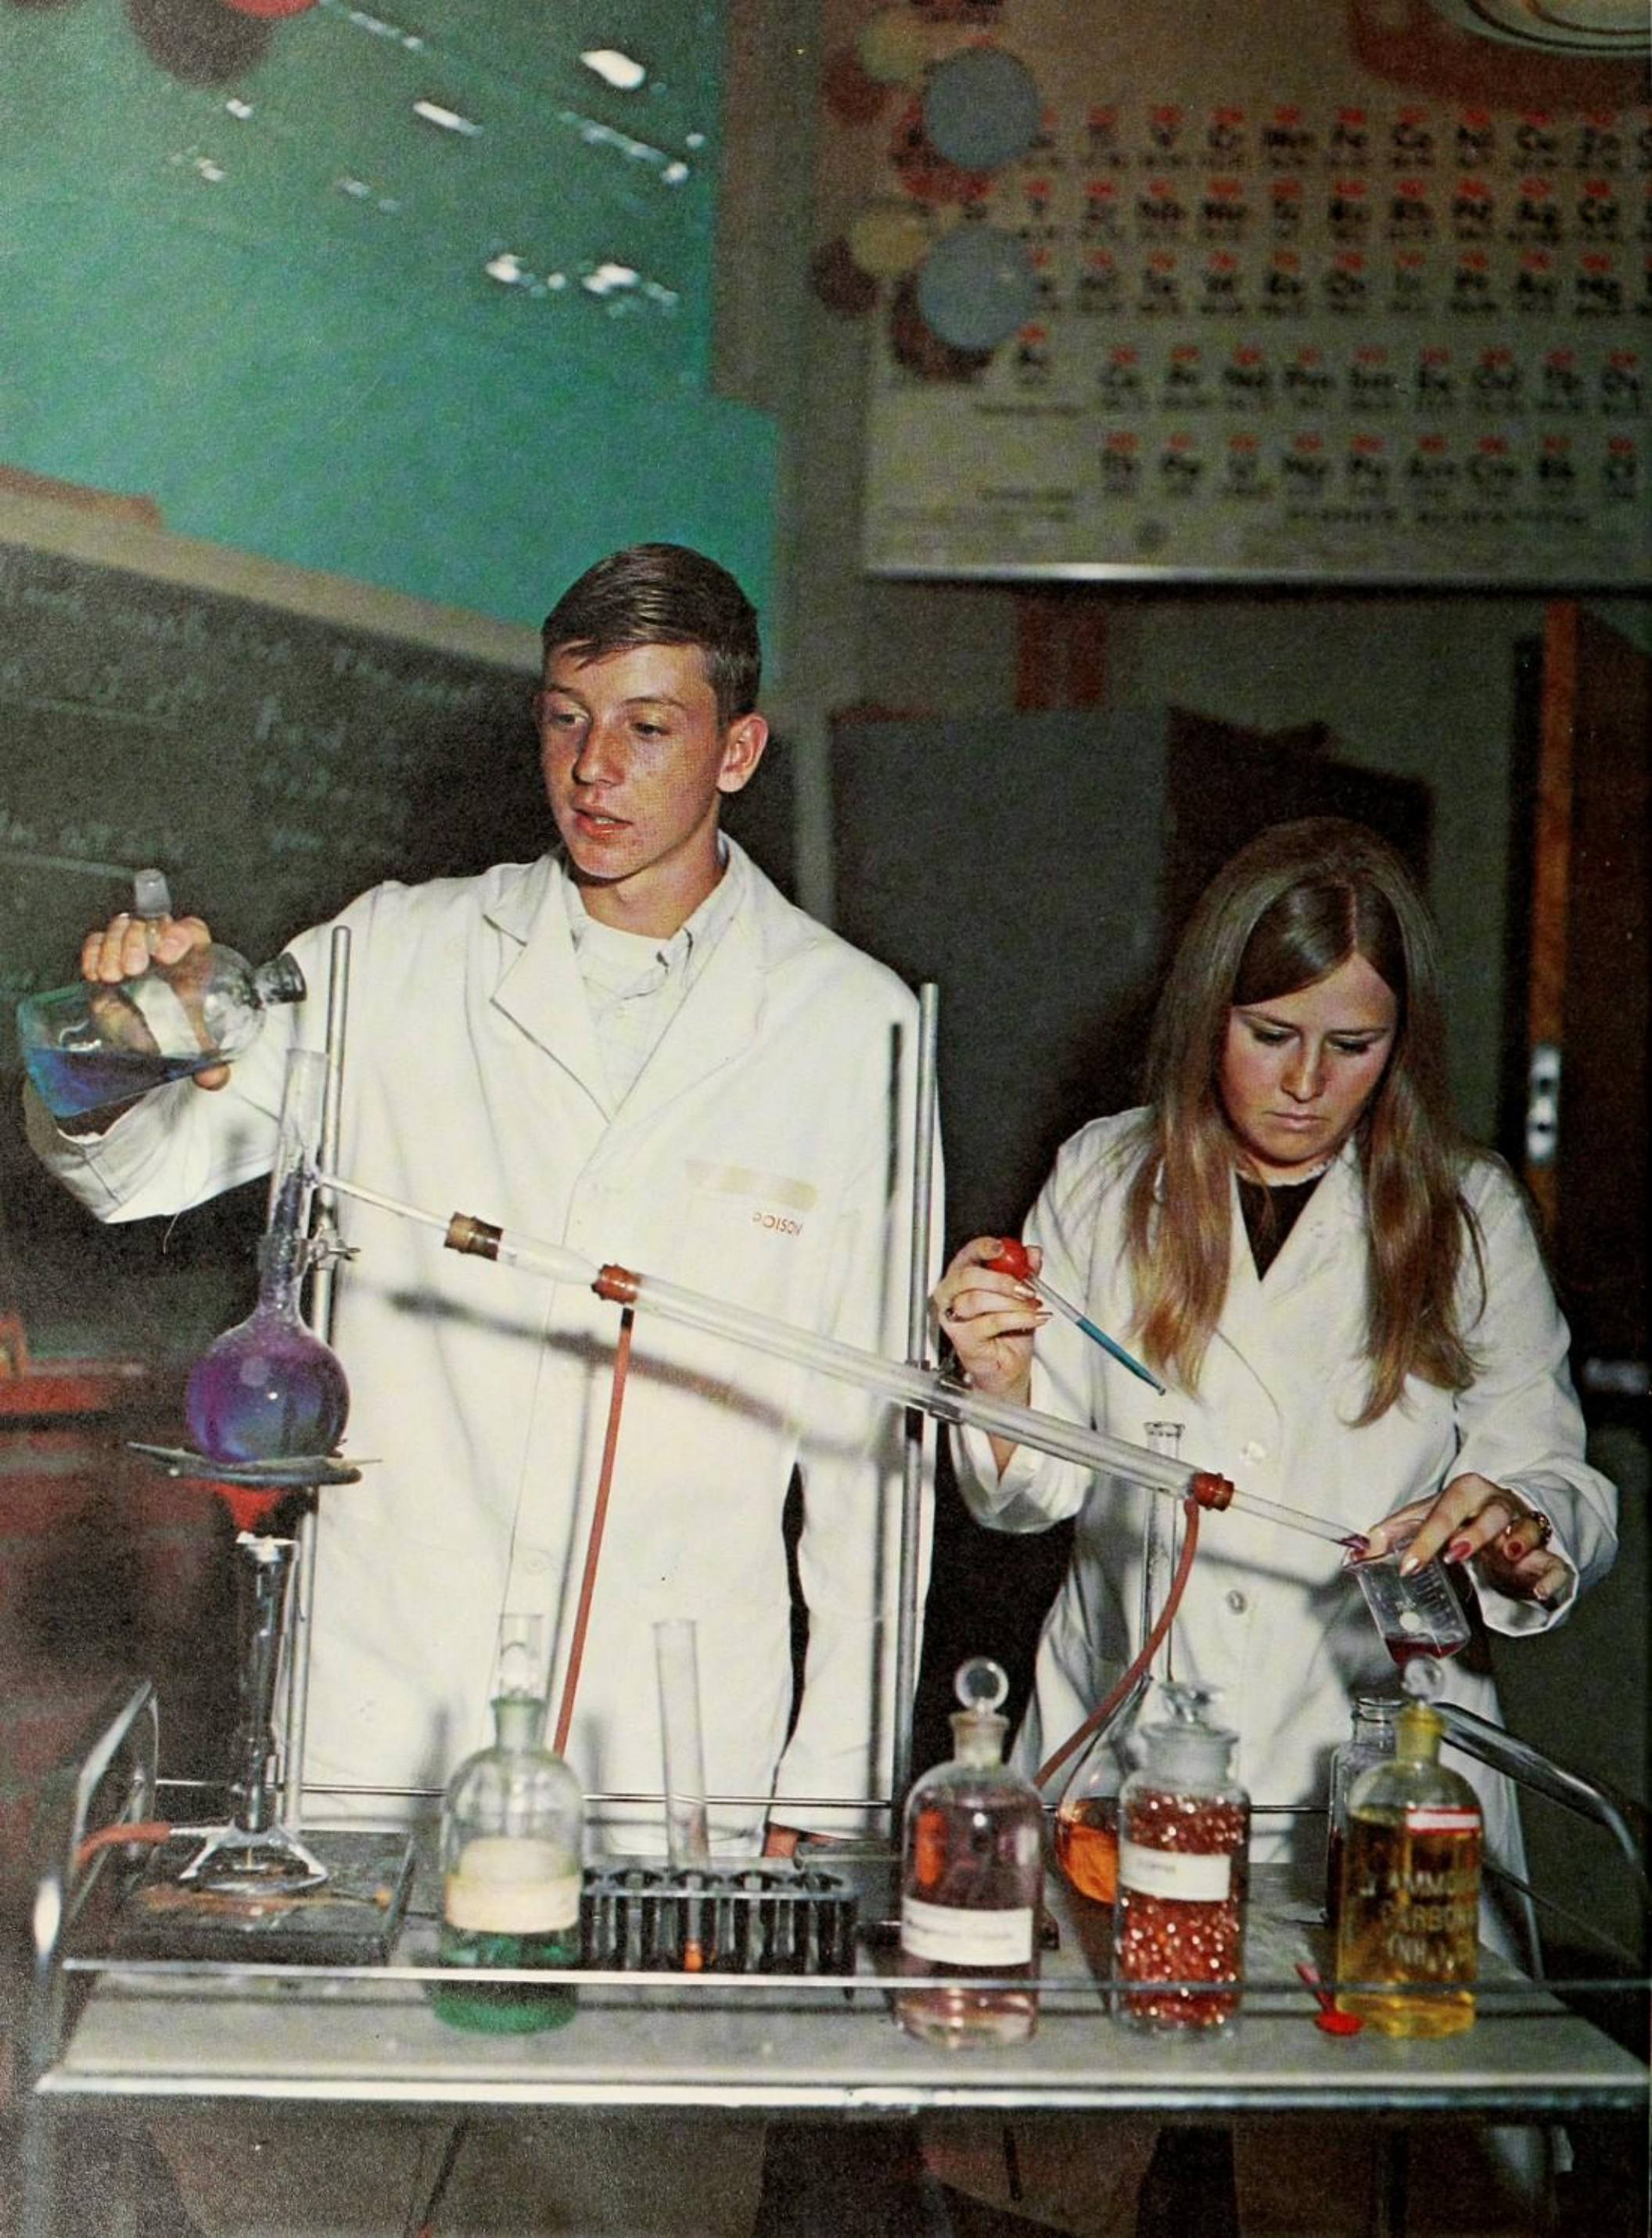


One of the largest tasks ever undertaken by a single high school, Warren's huge mosaic poses proudly on the front wall of the school. The entire student body participated in raising the funds for this mammoth project. This striking mural was designed by art student Celeste Susany.





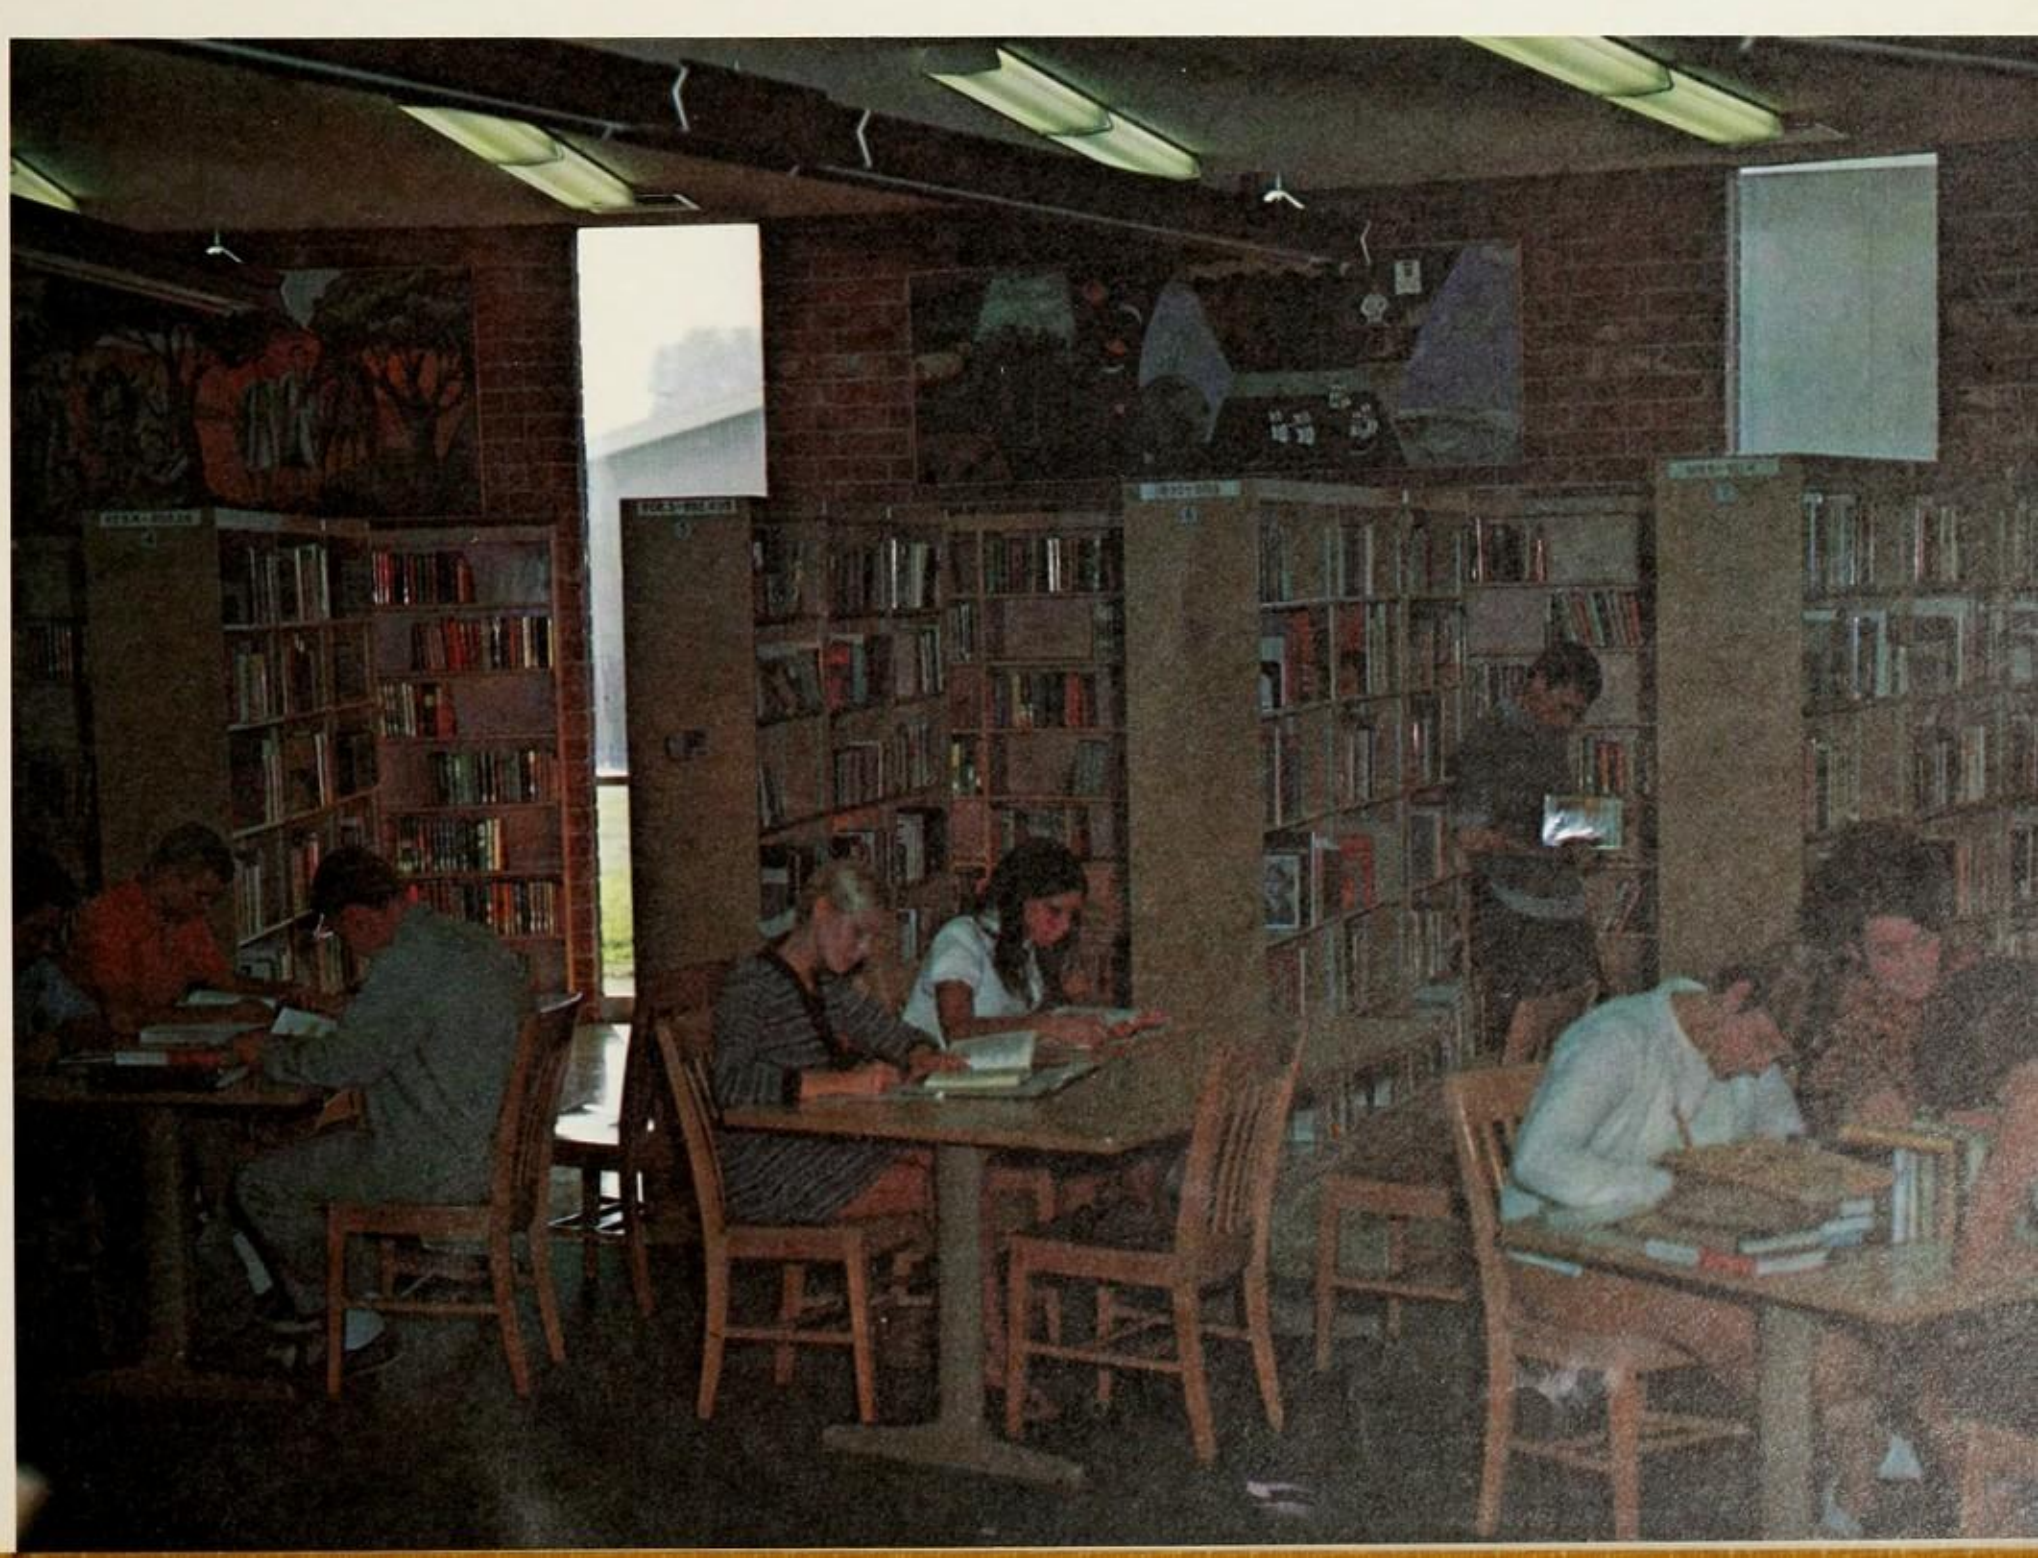
Familiar scenes around Warren's campus are the Olive Tree, the front of the school and one of the many trees which add beauty to the campus.

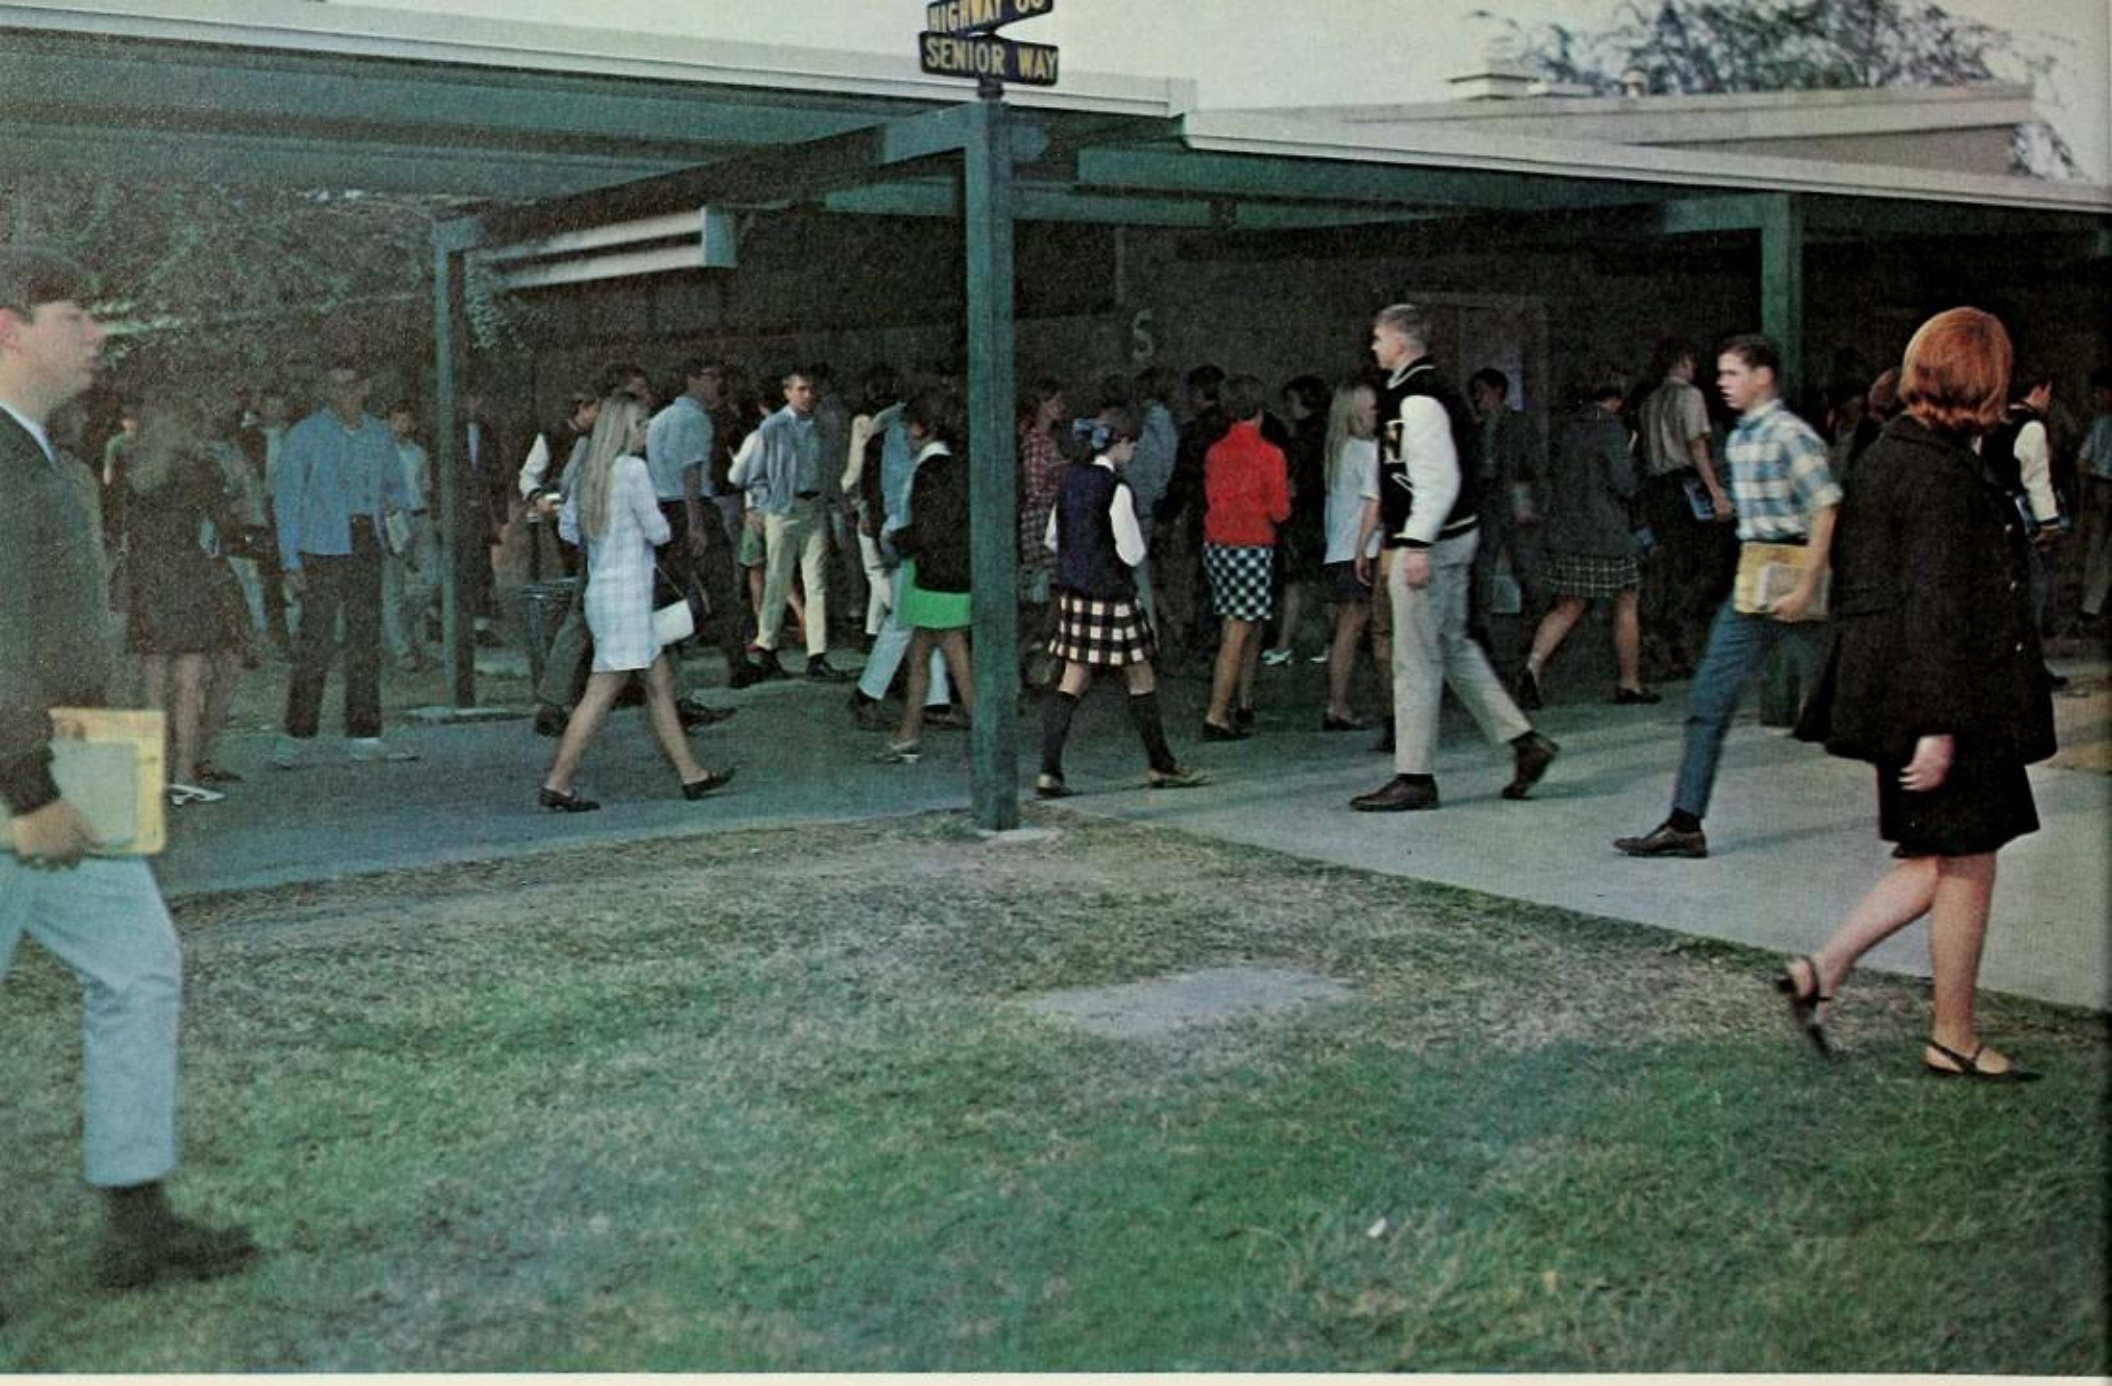


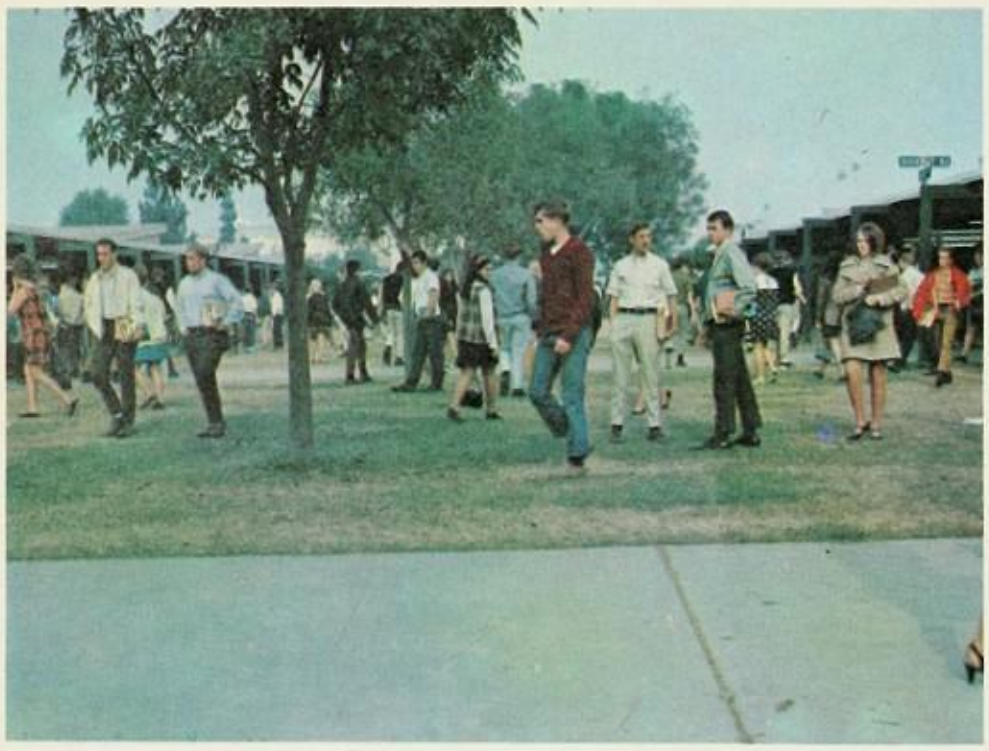
POISON

IMAGE OF LEARNING

Through research and scientific experiments interested students are able to further their quest for knowledge.







Each day Warren's empty halls become alive with student activity.

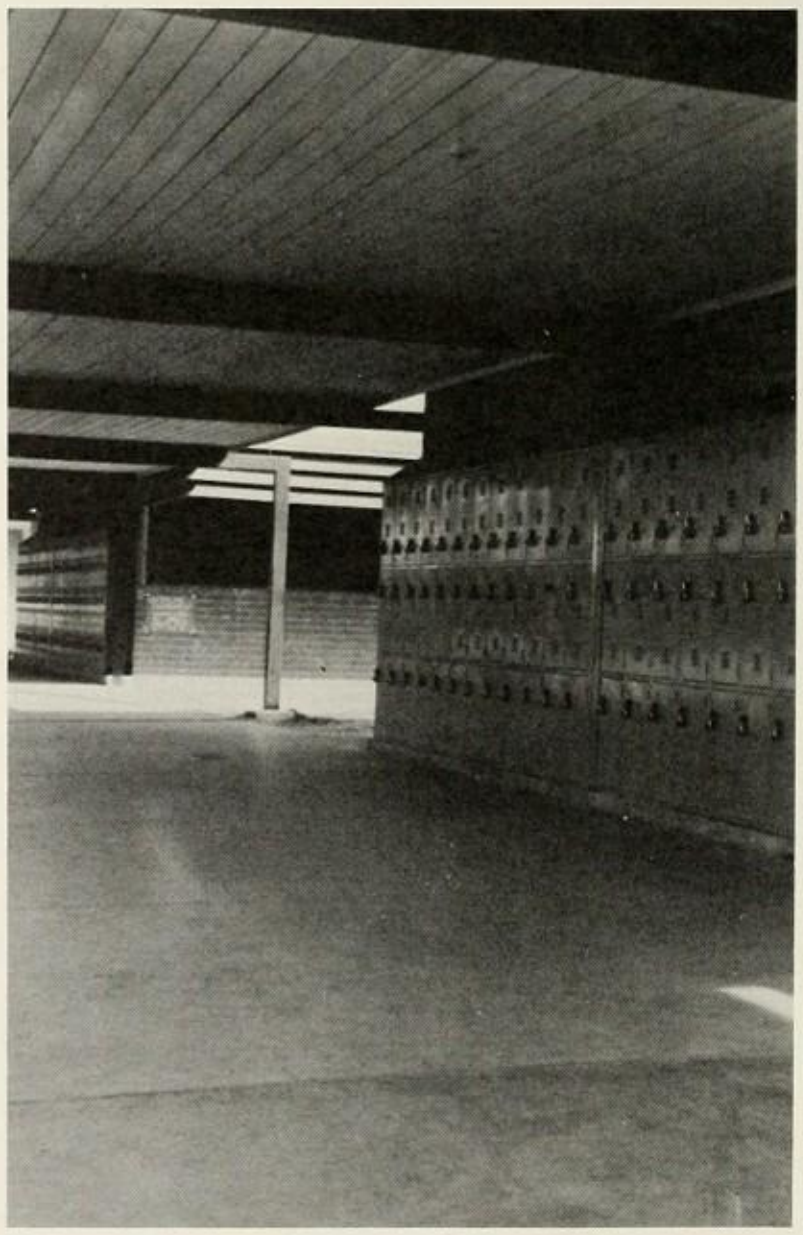


IMAGE OF COMPANIONSHIP

FACULTY

An integral facet of the Warren faculty is the athletic coaches. These men devote many extra hours of their time in the hope that they will not only develop talented athletes, but will also culture sportsmanship on a competitive basis with a firm emphasis on winning. It is to these coaches that many young men will be forever indebted, whether or not their future includes athletics.

WE, THE STUDENTS OF WARREN HIGH SCHOOL,
DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO BRECK GAY.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead—he is just away.

—James Whitcomb Riley
